Under U.S. copyright law, the transfer of copyright from the author(s) should be explicitly stated to enable the publisher to disseminate the work to the fullest extent possible. The following transfer must be signed and returned to the Editor's office before the manuscript can be accepted for publication. Please note that if the manuscript has been prepared as a Work Made For Hire, the transfer should be signed by both employer and employee. Address all requests for further information or exceptions to the Office of Rights and Permissions, American Institute of Physics, 500 Sunnyside Boulevard, Woodbury, New York 11797-2999 ; telephone (516) 576-2268

TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Copyright to the unpublished and original article, including copyright to the abstract forming part thereof, entitled:

Title of Article

submitted by the following author(s) (names of all authors):

Names of all Authors

is hereby transferred to American Institute of Physics ("AIP") for the full term thereof throughout the world, but subject to the rights reserved to the author(s) and to acceptance of the article for publication in:

Front End of the Muon Collider
Name of Conference Proceeding

edited by:

Name of Volume Editor

---

AIP shall have the right to publish the article in any medium or form, or by any means, now known or later developed.

AIP shall have the right to register the copyright to the article and the accompanying abstract in its name as claimant, whether separately or as part of the publication or other medium in which such work is included.

The author(s) reserve the following rights:

- (1) All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
- (2) The right, after publication by AIP, to grant or refuse permission to third parties to republish all or part of the article or translations thereof. In the case of whole articles, such third parties must obtain AIP's written permission as well. However, such permission will not be refused by AIP except at the direction of the author. AIP may grant rights with respect to journal issues or book volumes as a whole.
- (3) The right, after publication by AIP, to use all or part of the article and abstract in compilations or other publications of the author's own works, and to make copies of all or part of such material for the author's use for lecture or classroom purposes.
- (4) If the article has been prepared by an employee within the scope of his or her employment, the employer reserves the right to make copies of the work for its own internal use. If the article was prepared under a U.S. Government contract, the government shall have the rights under the copyright to the extent required by the contract.

The author(s) agree that all copies of the whole article or abstract made under any of the above reserved rights shall include notice of the AIP copyright. If each author's signature does not appear below, the signing author(s) represent that they sign this agreement as authorized agents for and on behalf of all the authors, and that this agreement and authorization is made on behalf of all the authors.
